Changed Voice – Usually refers to a male singer whose voice has "broken" - changed from an adolescent to an adult sound.

Choral Speech - The speaking of a piece of literature by a speech choir. It differs from Choric Drama in that the prime emphasis is on telling the story, rather than acting it out. The focus is on the language and the speaking of the text. There is no movement around the stage, but gestures and simple in-place movements may be used. Variety may be provided through the division of voices, use of solo voices, the physical arrangement of the choir, use of props and the suggestion of a simple costume.

Classical Guitar – A plucked stringed instrument originating in Spain.

Classical Music – Music of a serious nature, not pop.

Classical Period – Music composed between 1750 and 1830.

Classroom Music – Music designed to portray the many facets of the elementary school program. Singing is the main emphasis, but some movement/creative dance and limited use of simple instruments is required. Costumes and stage props may be used.

Composition (formerly Creative Music) - A broad category that includes any work of art that presents sound in an organized fashion. The work can be generated using traditional instruments or the human voice.

Community Band/Choir/Chorus – A group of instrumentalists or singers performing as a unit. The term also refers to a group whose members come from two or more schools and are selected on the basis of performing ability.

Entrants submit a brief plot outline to the adjudicator. Appropriate sounds, props or movement may be incorporated into the performance provided there is no disruption of the smooth delivery of the story. The performance MUST be in the teller's own words.

Light Opera – A type of comic or lighthearted opera containing spoken dialogue.

Lyric Poetry – Is distinguished by its intense personal feeling and unified by the poet's consistent response to an incident or idea. Lyric poetry frequently exhibits a graceful, fluid rhythm and an evocative pattern of sound. WORKING WITH COMBINED GRADES

When a school entry contains combined grades, the grade having the largest number of students determines which selection should be used if performing a test piece from

#1 CHORUS – PRESCRIBED SELECTION.

Example: If you enter Class 91810 Grades 2-3 Unison and you perform a prescribed piece from #1 - CHORUS – PRESCRIBED SELECTION as your second selection, you must determine which of the two grades has the largest number of students. You will then use either “Spider Hunter” or “Trolls” depending on whether there are more students from Grade 2 or from Grade 3. This is not a concern if you choose a selection from CLASSICAL or CONTEMPORARY.
